

Technical drawing of a circular object, likely a lens or a filter, showing a cross-section and a detailed view of the internal structure.

The main view is a circular cross-section with a diameter of $\varnothing 35.8$. It features a central circular area with a radial pattern of lines, suggesting a lens or a filter. The outer ring is labeled with a thickness of 3. The drawing includes a section line (A-A) and a detailed view of the internal structure, which is a circular pattern of small, repeating elements.
